

<https://www.lumecg.com/job-listings/business-analyst-4/>

Business Analyst

Description

Lume Consulting Group, a Sacramento-based IT consulting company, is seeking a talented and results-driven Business Analyst to join our team in Sacramento. The ideal candidate will have a strong background in business analysis, requirements gathering, and data-driven decision-making. This position requires the ability to work closely with stakeholders to analyze business needs and recommend process improvements.

JOB Location: ON-Site Sacramento,CA

Qualifications

Minimum Requirements:

- Minimum Seven (7) years of experience as a Business Analyst in the Healthcare Industry analyzing business and technical processes
- Experience with business process modeling
- Proficiency in data analysis tools and techniques
- Excellent communications and stakeholder management skills
- Familiarity with project management methodologies and tools
- Ability to gather, document, and validate business requirements and specifications in alignment with project goals and business strategies.
- Strong skills in data analysis, identifying trends and insights, and developing KPIs and metrics for project evaluation.
- Experience in collaborating with technical teams to design and propose business solutions, including cost-benefit analysis and business case development.
- Proficiency in supporting project management activities such as project planning, monitoring, reporting, and documentation.
- Ability to review and validate solutions through quality assurance activities, including user acceptance testing (UAT).

Hiring organization

Lume Consulting Group

Beginning of employment

Jan 25

Duration of employment

1 years

Industry

Government Consulting

Job Location

Sacramento, CA

Working Hours

Full Time

Date posted